

Engage with CMU

AlumniGivePartnerAbout UsMake Possible ☰

The legacy of Carnegie Mellon University lives in our alumni. Your stories are the story of the university.

The Tartan Alumni Oral History Project will gather the stories of alumni like you in your own words. We will then preserve them in a book that celebrates the impact of CMU on our alumni and the impact alumni like you have on the world around you.

Ready to share your story?

Call PCI directly at 877-798-5845 Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. CT or Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. CT.

Updating Your Information

As part of this project, you also will have an opportunity to update your contact information, including email address and phone numbers, to help keep you in touch with your alma mater.

Sharing Your Story

What kind of CMU story should you tell? It's really up to you! We would love to hear about:

- The impact of a special faculty or staff member
- An experience that was just "So CMU"
- Spring Carnival and Buggy fun
- Connections made on campus that led to love or lifelong friendships

- A moment that defined your career path
- The athletic team, Greek house or student organizations that shaped you
- The experience of international students finding a new home at CMU
- A creative or research project that challenged or inspired you

CMU is pleased to be partnering with industry leader PCI (Publishing Concepts). Their trained staff are excited to listen to what you have to share about your CMU experience. PCI will also be helping us to collect and assemble stories into a high quality Tartan Alumni Oral History Project book. Please note that we have only shared your contact information with PCI in conjunction with this project. We have NOT sold your contact information or otherwise used it for outside marketing purposes. PCI will not use your information for any purpose beyond this Oral History Project.
