THE PROJECT

Every Tiger has a tale, and the Mizzou Alumni Association wants to hear yours. However, with over 300,000 living alumni, it would take many years to meet with each Tiger individually.

That's why we've decided to embark on a new project — Tiger Tales — to collect the stories of alumni in their own words. These stories will be preserved in a book that celebrates the impact Mizzou has had on our lives and who we are today. Every year we don't capture and preserve these stories feels like another opportunity lost, so we're excited to get started!

To submit your Tiger Tales story or to update your information, please call the number listed on the postcard or email you received or call our partner, PCI at 1-800-982-1590. You do not need to log in to the MAA website.*
